P.3 English

Module: Fun and games

Unit: What we can do?

Learning Objectives: Students are able to:

- Identify different free time activities
- Use induction to find out the rules of using ‘and’, ‘ but’, ‘or’
- Use connectives (and, but, or) to link positive, opposite and negative ideas

| | |
|---|---|
| Pre-lesson Enquiry- Power Lesson Pre Lesson VideoStudents watch the video (flipped channel) about activities at home through Power Lesson 2. They are asked to answer the questions through the internet. Then, they label the pictures of different activities as pre task. (Pre-lesson Worksheet 1) |  |
| MotivationTeacher plays a miming game with students to guess what activities they are. Then Teacher check the answers of the pre-lesson worksheet with the students. | |
| With the help of the Venn diagram, students are asked to compare and contrast the price, food offered and comments. |  |

| | |
|---|---|
| Learning Activity (1)Pair Work1. Students take turns to ask their partner what he/she can do.2.3. The other student has to tell his/her partner 2 items that he/she can do. Teacher do the demonstration with a student in front of the class.Extension:Extension Worksheet – Students interview a family member about the activities he/she can do or can't do. Then they make sentences using 'and' ,'or', 'but' to introduce their family member. |  |